

FORCED/BONDED LABOUR POLICY

Company is committed towards providing a healthy, social and welfare oriented work environment. Hence we will strictly obey the various labour laws and the laws related to the safety of the children and youth.

We don't recommend any type of contract / forced/bonded labour in the company.

We will not tolerate any type of violence with any employee of the company. Following are the some examples of it:-

- Human trafficking
- Any illegal business of labour.
- Any type of contractual/ bonded labour.
- Unwanted slavery
- Any domestic slavery
- Negligence of human rights.

We will obey the labour laws related to human rights which are mentioned in ILO and UNO.

We will ensure that, any person, irrespective of his unskilled, semi skilled or skilled employment, will not fall in aforesaid criteria.

If any employee is found guilty of violating the fundamental rights of any other employee then strict disciplinary action will be taken against him/her which can be temporary dismissal or suspension from job.

Responsibility:

It is the responsibility of the every employee of the company to follow this policy.